

Unspoken - Who You Are

Tom: Db

(com acordes na forma de Capostrate na 1ª casa C)

I know that look you're givin' like you got something to prove.

'Cause I have walked for miles and miles in that same pair of shoes.

You refuse forgiveness like it's something to be earned.

But sometimes pain's the only way that we can learn.

Chorus

You can never fall too hard, so fast, so far that you can't get back when you lost where you are.

It's never too late so bad, so much that you can't change who you are.

Ohhhh, Ohhh, you can change who you are. Ohhh, ohhh.

verse 2

You believe in freedom, but you dont know how to choose.

You gotta step out of your feelings that you're so afraid to lose.

And everyday, you put your feet on the floor you gotta walk through the door, it's never gonna be easy.

But it's all worth fighting for.

Chorus

Bridge

Let the ashes fall wherever they land, come back from wherever you've been.

To the foot of the cross to the feet of Jesus. The feet of Jesus.

Final Chorus:

You can never fall too hard, so fast, so far that you can't get back when you lost where you are.

It's never too late so bad, so much that you can't change

You can never fall too hard, so fast, so far that you can't get back when you lost where you are.

It's never too late so bad, so much that you can't change

At the foot of the cross you change yea, who you are

At the foot of the cross you change yea, you can change who you are Ohhhh, Ohhh, you can change who you are. Ohhh, ohhh.

Acordes

