

Vampire Weekend - Mansard Roof

Tom: F

I see a mansard roof through the trees,
 I see a salty message written in the eves,

The ground beneath my feet
 The hot garbage and concrete,

And now the tops of buildings
 I can see them too!

I see a mansard roof through the trees,
 I see a salty message written in the eves,

The ground beneath my feet
 The hot garbage and concrete,
 And now the tops of buildings
 I can see them too!

The argentine collapse in defeat,
 The admiralty surveys the remnants of the fleet,
 The ground beneath their feet
 Is a nautically map sheet
 As thin as paper
 While it slips away from you.
