

Vampire Weekend - Mansard Roof

Tom: F

I see a mansard roof through the trees,
I see a salty message written in the eves,

The ground beneath my feet
The hot garbage and concrete,

And now the tops of buildings
I can see them too!

I see a mansard roof through the trees,
I see a salty message written in the eves,

The ground beneath my feet
The hot garbage and concrete,
And now the tops of buildings
I can see them too!

The argentine collapse in defeat,
The admiralty surveys the remnants of the fleet,
The ground beneath their feet
Is a nautically map sheet
As thin as paper
While it slips away from you.
