

Vance Joy - Missing Piece

tom:

Intro: C
 I've been waiting for the tides to change
 For the waves to send you my way
 I see you darling but you pixilate
 It gets hard to take these days

But we'll hold the line, I won't let go
 'Cause I'll be there when you
 Can finally make it home
 And I don't mind 'cause we both know
 That we'll be fine when you
 Can finally make it home

Because when I'm in a room with you
 That missing piece is found (oh)
 You know when you're by my side, darling
 Nothing can bring us down (oh)

I remember happy wasted days
 Summer's golden haze in our eyes
 Lifting you above the breakin' waves
 Memories floatin' back to my mind

You said, "Hold the line", I won't let go
 'Cause I'll be there when you
 Can finally make it home
 And I don't mind 'cause we both know

That we'll be fine when you
 Can finally make it home
 Because when I'm in a room with you
 That missing piece is found (oh)
 You know when you're by my side, darling
 Nothing can bring us down (oh)
 It's like when you're far away from me
 I get lost in the crowd (oh)
 Because when I'm in a room with you
 That missing piece is found (oh)
 Oh, I won't waste a minute when you're here
 And we're finally in the clear
 When every day is like the last
 I just keeping holdin' fast

Because when I'm in a room with you
 That missing piece is found (oh)
 You know when you're by my side, darling
 Nothing can bring us down (oh)
 It's like when you're far away from me
 I get lost in the crowd (oh)
 Because when I'm in a room with you
 That missing piece is found (oh)
