

Vance Joy - Wasted Time

Tom: A

(com acordes na forma de G)

Capostrate na 2ª casa

G
Why...

Why did you go wasting your time on me

You're so beautiful now

There's so much that's left for you now

O, yeah, babe

And why...

Why did you go flashing those eyes at me

You know that I am eager to please

I've always been eager to please

O, yeah, babe

Em G
Well I, I've got a lot to say

And I am scared, that you're gonna slip away

And you, you've got this white-eyed gaze

And a smile, that you carry through your days

Em D
O, Why-y-y,

O, Why-y-y-y

It's the easiest way,

To know you're a liar

And the beauty you heard

I see you talking with her hands

Well I don't think she knows

How she changed all my plans

And why

Why did you go wasting your youth on me

You're so beautiful now

There's so much that's left for you now

Oh, yeah, babe

And why

We look at the faces on your bedroom wall.

Well, nobody's perfect at all.

Sometimes it makes you feel small.

Oh, yeah, babe

Em G
Well I, I've got a lot to say

And I am scared, that you're gonna slip away

And you, you've got this white-eyed gaze

And a smile, that you carry through your days

Em D
O, Why-y-y,

O, Why-y-y-y

It's the easiest way,

To know you're a liar

And the beauty you heard

I see you talking with her hands

Well I don't think she knows

How she changed all my plans

Em D
The things that I thought would last

Well, they're fading, they're fading

The feelings, I used to have

Well, they're changing, they're changing

Em D
The things that I thought would last

Well, they're fading, they're fading

The feelings, I used to have

Well, they're changing, they're changing, they're changing now.

Well, they're changing, they're changing, they're changing now.
