

Verse - What Truth!?

tom:
 When I look into your eyes
 I believe, I think I'm lost again
 What is and what should never be
 Is this world we created?
 But it seems that everything comes back again
 Cause there's something, we're not seeing
 We gotta fight, so put your armor on
 We gotta fight, so put your armor on
 There must be
 There must be another way
 We gotta fight, so put your armor on
 We gotta fight, so put your armor on

You must be ready
 Ready to start
 What is reality?
 It's just how you see, the world
 (You can stay or leave)
 If you don't control your mind
 Someone else will
 Like if you hold me
 There're things I wanna talk about
 But I'm not sure
 I'm not sure, if I want to stay here
 And if you hurt me
 Maybe I'll just disappear like the Sun
 I won't come back
