

Victoria Carbol - Song Of The Witch Kingdom

tom:

Hey - ah
 Hey - ah

Hark, my child, come listen close
 Let me tell you of a tale
 Of a people cursed, a land destroyed
 Of a darkness that prevailed
 A witch kingdom once tall and proud
 Was ruled by Chochan queens
 Rhiannon fair was last of these
 For hatred stirred beneath
 Hey - ah
 Hey - ah

The Crochan queens were thus betrayed
 By those with iron teeth
 Three days, three nights the battle raged
 'Til every heartbeat ceased
 And as she fell, Rhiannon last
 Stretched out a vengeful hand
 "Heed my words and heed my curse
 Or ne'er return to this here land"
 Hey - ah

[Refrão]

She said blood to blood
 And soul to soul
 Together this was done
 And only together
 Can it be undone
 Be the bridge, be the light
 And when the iron melts
 When flowers spring from killing fields
 Only then the land shall be won
 Hey - ah
 Hey - ah

Five hundred years the land was dry
 All witches lost and scattered
 Blackbeak, Blueblood, Yellowlegs

Their magic dead and shattered
 With Crochans gone, hope there was none
 To bind and break the curse
 'Til silver-haired and crooked hearted
 Manon learned of her birth
 Hey - ah
 Hey - ah

Wing leader and Blackbeak heir
 Devourer of souls
 The long lost child of Crochan blood
 With eyes of burning gold
 Both ancient queen, iron warrior
 With Thirteen at her side
 They crowned her with a ring of stars

A people unified
 Hey - ah

[Refrão]

Blood to blood
 And soul to soul
 Together this was done
 And only together
 Can it be undone
 Be the bridge, be the light
 And when the iron melts
 When flowers spring from killing fields
 Only then the land shall be won
 Hey - ah
 Hey - ah

In final days a king arose
 To bathe the world in blood
 High queen Manon would not be cowed
 By his demonic flood
 With every clan of witches
 Met she mortals, met she fae
 And in the hills of Tarrasen
 The last stand of light was made
 Hey - ah
 Hey - ah

Am C
 With magic dark and cunning
 G D
 Demons sought to breach the walls
 Am C
 Should they have broken Orynth's gates
 G E
 Then all Erilea falls
 Am C
 So Thirteen left High Queen to live
 G D
 And Yielded up their lives
 C
 Blood unified, blood payment made
 Am
 Flowers bloomed and dead land sighed
 Am G
 Hey - ah

[Refrão]
