

Vikram - Gypsy Tragedy

Tom: D

Intro: Gb G Em Gb

A challenge awaits again

A debt is not paid

And shall be settled

In the afterlife

Are they enemies or allies?

Luck or mishap?

The men wielding two

Deadly swords

Losing all friends now

One by one left behind

The thoughts, so evil and dark

Just echoes deep in the mind

Now learn with your ego and awake

To your fate

Through the ocean soul

Wandering deeper

Throwing good fortune away

The future can't just be concealed

And the past that was left behind

Run away from the words

The fate of your heart is disgrace

The wind has shifted the way

The course was changed

A semblance of an

Old affair

Bring back memories from hes past

Just to remind

The guilt of

Old mistakes

Falling again now

After all he has cried

Another innocent life

Murdered while i was blind

Now learn with your ego

No return

Oh no

Through the ocean soul

Wandering deeper

Throwing good fortune away

The future can't just be concealed

And the past that was left behind

Run away from the words

The fate of your heart is disgrace
