You'll see the difference now

If we change it, you'll know how

Nothing ever stays the same

D

Once you let it, let it change

Part of you and part of me

And if we should separate

Go your own way, I won't wait

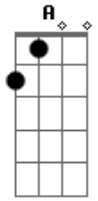

You are too good to be cruel

I'll play the part of the fool

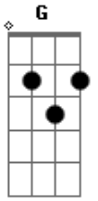

Where we should break all these ties

You won't see tears in these eyes
