Bbm Ebm
Brother you were never there for me

Bbm
When the children needed peace

Ebm
You disgraced our families

Bbm Ebm
Brother you were never there for me

F Ebm
When my father died I thought that you would take my hand

F Ebm Bbm
And say I was just too young

Bbm Ebm
Sister I can tell you all the love I have for you

Bbm Ebm
Our mother sleeps in silent peace because your love was pure

Bbm Ebm
Brother you were never there for me

F Ebm
When my father died I thought that you would take my hand

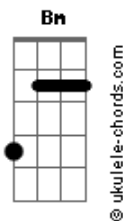

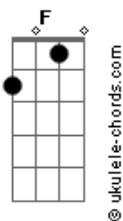

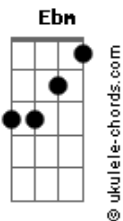

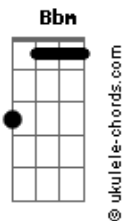

F Ebm
And say I was just too young

Ebm F Bbm
If I could erase, one moment of pain, I'd throw away

Everything even fame

Ebm F

Acordes

If I could play god, do you know what I'd do?
Bbm
I'd swim to your blood and cure the cancer in you

Ebm F Bbm

Bbm Ebm
Brother you were never there for me

Bbm
I was just too young

Ebm
Now I've grown and I can say that

Bm Ebm
Brother you were never there for me

F Ebm
When my father died I thought that you would take my hand

F Ebm
And say I was just too young

Ebm
If I could play god

F
If I could play god

Bbm
If I could play god

Bbm
If I could play god

Ebm F
I'd swim to your blood and cure the cancer in you
