

Warrel Dane - Brother

tom:
 Bbm
 Brother you were never there for me Ebm
 When the children needed peace Bbm
 You disgraced our families Ebm
 Brother you were never there for me Bbm
 When my father died I thought that you would take my hand F
 And say I was just too young Ebm Bbm
 Sister I can tell you all the love I have for you Ebm
 Our mother sleeps in silent peace because your love was pure Bbm
 Brother you were never there for me Ebm
 When my father died I thought that you would take my hand F
 And say I was just too young Ebm
 If I could erase, one moment of pain, I'd throw away Ebm
 Everything even fame F
 Ebm

If I could play god, do you know what I'd do? Bbm
 I'd swim to your blood and cure the cancer in you Ebm F Bbm
 Brother you were never there for me Bbm Ebm
 I was just too young Bbm
 Now I've grown and I can say that Bm Ebm
 Brother you were never there for me F Ebm
 When my father died I thought that you would take my hand F Ebm
 And say I was just too young Ebm
 If I could play god F
 If I could play god Bbm
 If I could play god Bbm
 If I could play god Ebm
 I'd swim to your blood and cure the cancer in you Ebm F Bbm
