

Weird Al Yankovic - Tmz

You're sort of famous, a minor celebrity
 And so it only makes sense the world would be
 Obsessed with every single thing you do
 They're running 'round with their camcorders in the night
 They're lurking patiently and hoping that they just might See something real embarrassing you do

The bad hair day and sweat-stained t-shirt
 That's the story that they're gonna feature
 With exclusive pics of your flabby behind
 You think you're all alone, but that's right when you'll find

A bunch of paparazzi popping out of nowhere
 Cameras in your face, and then suddenly
 You're on TMZ, you're on TMZ

Following you when you're walking down the street
 And asking stupid questions while you're trying to eat
 So you cover your face, thinking to yourself

Hey, isn't this creepy?
 And they're out there praying you'll have a big meltdown
 And take 'em on a little car chase through this whole town
 They'll be there with you when you're going to jail
 First on the scene for every wardrobe fail

You just picked up some transvestite
 Seconds later, it's up on the website
 Get a Vegas wedding, a quickie divorce

And they'll be sneaking in, snapping pictures, of course

And if they ever catch you picking your nose
 Or stumblin' down the street on a drunken spree

You're on TMZ
 Stalking you, just waiting by your front door
 Trailing you through airport security
 They're with TMZ, they're with TMZ

We caught this Oscar nominee picking up dog poop!
 Is that a baby bump?

I pronounce you guilty of leaving the house while fat!
 Look who's drinking coffee!
 Everything celebrities do is fascinating!

Oh, let me tell you
 It's getting to the point where a famous person can't Even get a DUI or go on a racist rant
 Those guys are all around, so you really shouldn't dare
 Go to every club in town if you've lost your underwear

Seems that every single time a star decides to Shave their head or ram their car into a tree
 They're on TMZ

If they catch you peeing in the bushes
 Later on that night, well, I guarantee
 You're on TMZ, you're on TMZ

You're on TMZ
 Every single celebrity knows they're gonna be
 There on TMZ
