

Paul Weller - I Woke Up

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I woke up
 And everything had gone
 My house was not my home
 When I woke up

[Segunda Parte]

I woke up
 And everything had changed
 No nothing felt the same
 Wearing someone else's shoes
 I found, in bins around the town
 I been walking 'round and 'round
 For a clue

[Refrão]

Oh, standing on the edge of the mighty ocean
 Waiting for the tide to roll
 And within this realm of constant motion
 I'm tryna find my role in it all
 When I woke up

[Solo] G A D

 D G D G A

[Terceira Parte]

I woke up
 And everyone had gone
 No note to say how long
 So I stepped into the sun
 And waited out the long, long days
 With nothing much to say
 And it forced to bear so long
 On the way

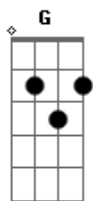

[Refrão]

Oh, standing on the edge of the mighty ocean
 Waiting for the tide to roll
 And within this realm of constant motion
 I'm tryna find my role in it all
 When I woke up
 When I woke up
 Ooh, when I woke up
