

Whiskey Myers - Broken Window Serenade

Tom: C

Intro: C Em

A couple of pretty flowers

Is what I brought to you

I saw you through Em a broken window

With a different point of view

You had C signs of depression

From a long line of sin

And your face tells a story Em

'Bout the places you have been

I love you so C

I thought you should know Em

And that muddy waters flowin C

As you take my hand

Past the creek down by the holler Em

Through your daddies land C

I could buy you a diamond

But I cannot change your world

Cuz I ain't got no money Em

You'll never be my girl no no C

I thought you should know Em

You was gonna be a singer C

And a big movie star

But you can't catch no breaks baby Em

And Hollywood is hard

Now you work down at the time out C

Off 155

And you're dancing for your dollar Em

Just tryin to stay alive

It hurts me so C

Em

I thought you should know

You feed your addiction

With your crystal meth

And I plea for your life

as it takes you to your death

You make your deal with the devil

As your looks begin to fade

Em

I saw you laughin through the tears

As you slowly slipped away

I watched you go

I thought you should know

That cold rain is pourin

As they lay you in a grave

And I can barely recognize you

In your fragile state

No more signs of depression

From a long time ago

Em

As they slowly laid you low, it was a rose C
