

Whitney - No Woman

Tom: D

I left drinking on the city train
 To spend some time on the road
 Then one morning i woke up in l.a.
 Caught my breath on the coast
 I've been going through a change
 I might never be sure
 I'm just walking in a haze
 I'm not ready to turn

 No woman
 No woman

 No woman

 No woman

Midnight driving through the bay
 Going back on the road
 Coming up and i wish i could stay
 I've been sleeping alone
 I've been going through a change
 I might never be sure
 I'm just walking in a haze
 I'm not ready to turn

 No woman
 No woman

 I left drinking on the city train
 To spend some time on the road
