G
 The violet textures so van gogh
 Your hands have always held their own C
 I'll help you decorate your garden home D C D
 G
 I'm curious I've come to know
 With every spark we're losing glow C
 We've lived to compliment but now where do we grow D C D
 G
 Some leave share an attribute with you dandelion
 You're both fading since you heard a whisper in the autumn wind C D C
 G
 Some trees are deciduous, october's feeling cool D
 These contagious idealizations aren't conserving any fuel

As we grow older C G
 We won't feel all this weight D G
 We build strength through consequence C G
 Each seasons a theme for what take's place D
 We don't celebrate controversy C G D
 My hearts flaring its disgrace G
 I'm not here to let you down C G D
 Apart this life just doesn't taste Am (Bm )
 Much like the place that I once knew C G
 Without you
 G
 Milemarkers, milestones C

Take what we like and let it show
 That we experience the high times and the low D C D
 G
 Nutrients will come and go, our loyalty won't move C D C
 D
 Appreciations what we're chasing, what we're chasing is far and few
 As we grow older C G
 We won't feel all this weight D G
 We build strength through consequence C G
 Each seasons a theme for what take's place D
 We don't celebrate controversy C G D
 My hearts flaring its disgrace G
 D I'm not here to let you down C G D
 Apart this life just doesn't taste Am (Bm )
 Much like the place that I once knew ( C G D )
 ( Am (Bm ) C G D )
 Am (Bm ) C G D Am (Bm )
 When you're with him you look so nice, I'm torn inside
 As we grow older C G
 We won't feel all this weight D G
 We build strength through consequence C G
 Each seasons a theme for what take's place D
 We don't celebrate controversy C G D
 My hearts flaring its disgrace G
 I'm not here to let you down C G D
 Apart this life just doesn't taste Am (Bm )
 Much like the place that I once knew C G
 Without you
