

Willie Nelson - Dark As a Dungeon

Tom: G

G
 Come all you young fellers, so young and so fine D
G And seek not your fortunes way down in the mine G
G It will form like a habit and seep in your soul D
G 'Til the stream of your blood flows as black as the coal G

D It's dark as a dungeon and damp as the dew G
D Where the dangers are double and the pleasures are few G
G Where the rain never falls and the sun never shines D
G It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines G

G There is many a man I have seen in my day D
G Who lived just to labor his whole life away G
G Like the fiend with his dope and the drunkard his wine D
G A man will have lust for the lure of the mine G

D C G

It's dark as a dungeon and damp as the dew D
 Where the dangers are double and the pleasures are few G
 Where the rain never falls and the sun never shines D
 It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines G

G I hope when I'm dead and the ages shall roll D
G That my body will blacken and turn into coal G
G I will look from the door of my heavenly home D
G And pity the miner a' diggin' my bones G

D It's dark as a dungeon and damp as the dew G
D Where the dangers are double and the pleasures are few G
G Where the rain never falls and the sun never shines D
G It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines G
G It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines G
G It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines G
G It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines G
