

Willie Nelson - Dark As a Dungeon

Tom: G

G
 Come all you young fellers, so young and so fine D
G C G
 And seek not your fortunes way down in the mine
G G D
 It will form like a habit and seep in your soul
G C G
 'Til the stream of your blood flows as black as the coal

D C G
 It's dark as a dungeon and damp as the dew
D C G
 Where the dangers are double and the pleasures are few
G C D
 Where the rain never falls and the sun never shines
G C G
 It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines

G C D
 There is many a man I have seen in my day
G C G
 Who lived just to labor his whole life away
G C D
 Like the fiend with his dope and the drunkard his wine
G C G
 A man will have lust for the lure of the mine

D C G

It's dark as a dungeon and damp as the dew
D C G
 Where the dangers are double and the pleasures are few
G C D
 Where the rain never falls and the sun never shines
G C G
 It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines

G C D
 I hope when I'm dead and the ages shall roll
G C G
 That my body will blacken and turn into coal
G C D
 I will look from the door of my heavenly home
G C G
 And pity the miner a' diggin' my bones

D C G
 It's dark as a dungeon and damp as the dew
D C G
 Where the dangers are double and the pleasures are few
G C D
 Where the rain never falls and the sun never shines
G C G
 It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines
G C G
 It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines
G C G
 It's dark as a dungeon way down in the mines
