

Wings - Picassos Last Words

Tom: G

The grand old painter died last night his paintings on the wall
 Before he left he bade us well and said good night to us all
 Drink to me
 Drink to my health
 You know I can't drink anymore
 Drink to me
 Drink to my health
 You know I can't drink anymore
 Three o'clock in the morning
 Drink to me

I'm getting ready for bed
 It came without a warning
 But I'll be waiting for you baby
 I'll be waiting for you there
 So Drink to me
 Drink to my health
 you know I can't drink anymore
 Drink to me
 Drink to my health
 You know I can't drink anymore
