Check my pulse, am I still breathing?
                                         Gbm
                            D
Will You grasp my wrist and hold it dear to You heart?
                                  Bm
To see if I am beating for You and only You my Father
Gbm E Bm A E
Gbm E Bm A E
How we live and fight is who we are
Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?
                      Bm
Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?
Who you are is all from Me
Who you are is all from Me
                                      Gbm
I'm leaving behind the things of this world
             Ε
                               Gbm
So test me oh Lord, examine my soul
               E
Give light to my eyes to see Your glory divine and break through these skies

Hear me when I cry to see Your grace come down and purge these dead lives
                              A Abm
I will live to fight for these dead lives

How we live and fight is who we are
And as You dwell inside my heart your burning a fire that's growing
Gbm

So when I feel the warmth subside rekindle the embers that's burning
Check my pulse, am I still breathing?
         Bm
Will You grasp my wrist and hold it dear to You heart?
                           Bm
To see if I am beating for You
