

Xana - So It's Your Birthday

tom:

Intro: C G Em
G D

[Verse 1]

Did your dye your hair blonde when the winter was gone?
Did you look at the moon on the first night of June?
And do you think of me, when she's touching you?

Em D

Do you still talk in your sleep, are you talking to me?
Did you chase all your dreams
Let 'em fall to your feet
Do you wish at the end of the day you could call me?

Em D

[Pre-Chorus]

Well it's been two years since I've last seen ya
And I don't ever wanna look at you again
But I might die if those emerald eyes don't search for mine

[Chorus]

It's your birthday, darling
I wish I could see you when ten thousand candles light up in your eyes tonight

(Em D)

So it's your birthday, baby
Have fun at your party
I wish I was there to hold back your hair when you've drank too much outta your fancy cup

(D C G)

[Verse 2]

Did you make up with your dad?
Does he still make you mad?
And maybe just once did you try to come back?
Or did ya let the rain wash it all away?
Did you fight all those battles you swore you would lose?

Acordes

Did you come out on top?

Did you show 'em who's boss?
And when I dream of you, do you dream of me too?

[Pre-Chorus]

It's been four years since I've last kissed you
And I don't ever wanna speak to you again
But I might die if I don't hear your voice tonight

[Chorus]

It's your birthday, darling
I wish I could see you when ten thousand candles light up in
your eyes tonight

(Em D)

So it's your birthday, baby
Have fun at your party
I wish I was there to hold back your hair when you've drank
too much outta your fancy cup

[Bridge]

And I wonder if you're wanting me back
The best that you ever had
Oh darling, don't answer that

You can make a wish
I'll blow a kiss
But I still won't face the facts

[Final]

It's your birthday darling
I'm missing you this morning
I wish I could bake you a cake and make it all okay

(Em D)

Happy birthday, baby
I wonder if you hate me

'Cause I love you more than the moon and the stars
You could take a picture wherever you are

Mail it my way like a post card and sign your name with a big heart
