

Xavier Rudd - Letter

tom:

G

Em C

I I sit by my window

D Em

With everything I've done

Em C

Doors that I've opened

D Em

And webs that I've spun

Em C

And the candle beside me

D Em

it burns to the left

Em C

and the rain on the clay

D Em

sends the lizard to it's nest

Em C

will there be a time

D Em

when I will hold you again?

Em C

With my arms spread out

D Em

My chest you'll rest

Em C

And I'll write you a letter

D Em

With everything I know

Em C

?bout the weight of the world

D Em

And the way things could go

Em C

So live up my friend

D Em

Step back again

Em C

For some things will be given

D Em

For some you'll have to bend

Em C

You? ll have to bend my friend

D Em

To hold on to this

Em C

For some things will come easy

D Em

And some will be a test

Em C D Em

You?ll have to bend

Em C

Now the ocean connects me

D Em

To everything I know

Em C

I?m mellowing my mind

D Em

So my heart, it can call

Em C

With these trees as my witness

D Em

I'll slice up some fruit

Em C

And each to their peaceful

D Em
good intentions and truth

Em C

There will be a time

D Em

when I'll hold you again

Em C

With my arms spread out

D Em

I will dive right in

Em C

So now here is your letter

D Em

With everything I know

Em C

?Bout the weight of the world

D Em

And the way things could go

Em C

So live up my friend

D Em

Step back again

Em C

For some things will be given

D Em

For some you'll have to bend

Em C

You? ll have to bend my friend

D Em

To hold on to this

Em C

For some things will come easy

D Em

And some will be a test

Em C D Em

You?ll have to bend

Em C

Now the ocean connects me

D Em

To everything I know

Em C

I?m mellowing my mind

D Em

So my heart, it can call

Em C

With these trees as my witness

D Em

I'll slice up some fruit

Em C

And each to their peaceful

D Em

good intentions and truth

Em C

There will be a time

D Em

when I'll hold you again

Em C

With my arms spread out

D Em

I will dive right in

Em C

So now here is your letter

D Em

with everything i know

Em C

'bout the weight of the world

D Em

and the way things could go

Acordes

