

XXXTentacion - LIMBO

tom:

Em

[Refrão]

The wind blows through the window

At the house of a dead man

All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand

[Primeira Parte]

Missin' a part of me, I know

I need to shut my eyes again

I know it's hard to be the only

One alone inside your head

Missin' a part of me, I know

I need to shut my eyes again

I know it's hard to be the only one alone

[Refrão]

The wind blows through the window

At the house of a dead man

All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand

The wind blows through the window

At the house of a dead man

All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand

[Segunda Parte]

Drownin' in all my regrets

All just the same in the end

Over and over again (Again)

All that we do is pretend

Is pretend, is pretend

Drownin' in all my regrets

All just the same in the end

Just the same

Over and over again

All that we do is pretend

[Terceira Parte]

Lay me down, I'll start again

You're not around, I can't pretend

That I won't drown, that life won't end

I'm bleedin' out, I lost a friend

Lay me down, I'll start again

You're not around, I can't pretend

That I won't drown, that life won't end

I'm bleedin' out, I lost a friend

[Refrão]

The wind blows through the window

At the house of a dead man

All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand
