A grew soul, purple and blue

But I think I've found something in you

You hold my hand so close between yours

All of this time I always thought it would be your hand

Holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Holding mine

Always thought it would be your hand

Bm Cm7 Em C Em

Holding mine

For these days I just count the hours

Oh, shape shifting boy in all of those scours

You hold my hand so close between yours

All of this time I always thought it would be your hand

Oh, holding mine

Holding mine

Thought it would be your hand

Holding mine
