Tom: G

WALLS which comes out July 2007. I have listened to the song several times and watch a video Youtube and this is as close as i can get to what it sounds like. I am not saying this 100% accurate because i dont think it is.

Use down up stroking on this and listen to the song for the rythm

I know this might vary with the exact number of times played with each power chord but u listen to the song u can easily get this down just look at the power chords!!! when i out the rest ill put it up!!!
