

Yo La Tengo - Damage

Tom: F

this is one of my favorite songs from "I Can Hear the Heart..." it's really easy going smooth. Ira Kaplan plays a very simple acoustic riff over and over throughout the song, a solo a little more than halfway through.

NOTE: i get the feeling that Ira substitutes the last little bit:

the solo is just playing around with the notes played throughout the song.

good luck, dawgs.

tossup
