Young The Giant - Garands

```
Tom: E
                                                               Е
Intro: E E7 Bm A
                                                               Ones I trust
                                                                                   Bm
                                                               F7
                                                               Long before I knew of love
                                                                                    E
                                                               All the things I understood
Е
Go bright light
                                                               E7
                                                                                   Bm
F7
Scour the forest
                                                                                          F
Through the night
                                                               E7
Α
Searching for a
                                                                                    F
                                                               Δ
Sign of life
                                                               Now look what I've become
                    Bm
                                                               Α
Memories of fears and strife
                                                               Before the day is done
Keep his legs from
                                                               Now that we have won
Turning blue
                                                               (E7 Bm A)
             Bm
E7
Broken bones and muddy shoes
                                                               F
              E
                                                               The cold wind, you notice
А
Running through the fields I knew
                                                               Bm
                                                                        Α
                                                               The sky
F7
            Bm
Join the ranks of the favored few
                                                                                      F7
                                                               F
                                E7
                                                               It blows in to show us
                                        Bm
                         E
What have I become?
                                                               Bm
                                                                         Α
                                                               The sign
                          E
                                 E7
                                             Bm
Before the day is done
                                                               E
                                                                                      E7
                                                               It falls down before us
Α
Now that we have
                                                               Bm
                                                                        А
                                                               It lies
F
                                                               E
Got what's left
                                                               The cold wind, you notice
                   Bm
F7
                                                               Bm
                                                                            Α
Lost my rights when I was young
                                                               My eyes
Taken by the
```

Acordes

Fighting for the greater good Now tell me why this feels so wrong Bm Feels so wrong, to hold this gun E7 Bm E E7 Bm E7 E7

```
(E E7 Bm A)
```