

Young The Giant - God Made Man

Tom: G
Intro: G C

G C
You never know the weight of your crimes
G C
But when all the gates have closed and you're tired
G C
You stand a while by the fire And it burns bright
G C
A while, a while, you sit quiet
G C
Inside you're so warm
G C
Your eyes open up
G C
To the sunrise To the sunrise
G C
Far from here
G C
I never know the state that you're in
G C
It's obvious to climb in your skin
G C
But I know how to walk across

G C
When it's silent inside, it feels right
G C
Inside you're so warm
G C
Your eyes open up
G C
To the sunrise, to the sunrise
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
(God made man And his reason)
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
(God made man And his reason)
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
(God made man And his reason)
G C
Cause I want you to know That I know
G C
(God made man And his reason)
G
And I want you to know
