

Yuri Kufa - Falling Into The Sky

tom:

Intro: Bm7 G Bm7 G

Bm7 G Sometimes life loses its meaning

Sometimes we lose it all

Even I, the one overweening

Was not immune to fall

I don't know what I was thinking

My eyes are almost drown

The world looks like it is sinking

That's why I feel so small

Now I can't see the light

I'm falling into the sky

?Cuz your green bright eyes

Are out of my sight

( Bm7 G )

Bm7 G Sometimes I feel like I'm dreaming

Sometimes I hit the ground

All I know is that now I'm healing

But I still feel our bound

I know this pain that I'm dealing

It's hard to break a vow

And now that I met the grieving
