

Zara Larsson - One mississippi

```
Tom: Eb
                                                                I like the way it burns when you say goodbye
  Refrão:
                                                                                  Ah
                                                                I like the way it hurts when you screw with my mind
One Mississippi, you're here
                                                                Pré-Refrão:
Lovin' me with your whole heart
                                                                Or am I fucked up that I think it's fun
And two Mississippi, we scream
                                                                                  Bb
                                                                That we don't get scared when the sirens come?
To watch each other fall apart
                                                                               Fm
                                                                We kiss just to make up, we love just to break up
Three Mississippi, you're gone
                                                                We head for disaster, but live for the danger
                   Bb
Sayin' that you're done, you don't want it no more
                                                                We count
And four Mississippi, you're home
                                                                Refrão:
Like nothin' ever happened at all
                                                                One Mississippi, you're here
                                                                Lovin' me with your whole heart
Verso 1:
        Cm
Why do I stay? I know I should leave
                                                                And two Mississippi, we scream
       Bb
Mascara fallin' down my cheek
                                                                To watch each other fall apart
                Fm
But you pull me in and make me forget
                                                                Three Mississippi, you're gone
                                                                Sayin' that you're done, you don't want it no more
About the broken glass on our skin
                                                                And four Mississippi, you're home
Pré-Refrão:
             Cm
                                                                     Αh
We don't get scared when the sirens come
                                                                Like nothin' ever happened at all
A little fucked up 'cause we think it's fun
                                                                Interlúdio:
               Fm
We kiss just to make up, we love just to break up
We head for disaster, but live for the danger
                                                                Ponte:
                                                                One Mississippi, you're here
We count
                                                                Lovin' me with your whole heart
Refrão:
One Mississippi, you're here
                                                                And two Mississippi, we scream
Lovin' me with your whole heart
                                                                To watch each other fall apart
And two Mississippi, we scream
                                                                Refrão:
To watch each other fall apart
                                                                One Mississippi, you're here
                                                                Lovin' me with your whole heart
Three Mississippi, you're gone
                                                                And two Mississippi, we scream
Sayin' that you're done, you don't want it no more
And four Mississippi, you're home
                                                                To watch each other fall apart
Like nothin' ever happened at all
                                                                Three Mississippi, you're gone
                                                                                   Bh
                                                                Sayin' that you're done, you don't want it no more
Verso 2:
           Cm
I like the way, that you set the scene
                                                                And four Mississippi, you're home
The way you breathe in your nicotine
                                                                Like nothin' ever happened at all
```

Acordes

