```
           C                      D
She doesn't love you like I do
Em                G
She doesn't have my name
C                    D
However she tries to act like it
Em                G
She'll never be the same

           C                 D
But she's new and she's beautiful
                   Em             G
You have never been in a fight
           C           D
Yeah it's awfully perfect now
            Em            G
But you just know deep inside

             C          D
That she's not me
         Em              G
She's not me
           C       D
She's not me, baby
           Em        G
She's not me

           C                  D
Does she make you feel wanted like I did
Em                       G
Make you feel like you're the one thing that matters
C                  D
You let her head rest on your chest
Em                 G
But when you close your eyes

           C               D
You'll be seeing my face again
       Em               G
I'll be crossing your mind
                   C          D
You'll be dreaming of places we went
               Em         G
And then you'll wake up to find

             C          D
That she's not me
             Em           G
She's not me
         C        D
She's not me, remember
               Em        G
That she's not me
           C        D
Mmm      Yeah
           Em        G
She's not me
She's not me

G
Said I wonder now
G                      Em
Yeah I wonder how you've been
         C
Are you happy?

D
Is she still the one?
D
Are you having fun?
```

```
                      G
Is it for real?
C
Baby
Em
Cause I'll be waiting here
Em                    G
Another week, a month or year
               C
If you're lonely

D
God I wish I knew everything
D                 G
About the two of you
                        C
Won't you tell me

D
Does she have any humor?
              D
Does she laugh at your jokes?
                          G
Can she look past the rumors?
                          C
Does she know how it goes?
                          D
Eh, or is it none of my business?

Do you go to the movies?
                  D
Do you make out in the park?
                    G
Do you stay up for hours?
                C
And just talk and talk?
                          D
Eh, or is it none of my business?

Does she know bout the bracelets?
                D
There were two of a kind
                          G
Did you save did you save it?
                 C
Like I did mine

Eh, or is it none of my business?

D
Would it make any difference
            D
If I got you alone?
                      G
If I called would you listen?
                        C
Would you hang up the phone?

Eh, or is it none of my business?

D                    G            C
Oh-ah, oh-ah, eh, none of my business
                     G            D
Oh-ah, oh-ah, eh, none of my business
D                    G            C
Oh-ah, oh-ah, eh, none of my business
                     G              Em
Oh-ah, oh-ah, eh, none of my business

           G      C                    C        Em
She's not me and she'll never be, never be, never be
           G      C                    C        Em
She's not me and she'll never be, never be, never be
           G      C                    C        Em      G
She's not me and she'll never be, never be, never be
C
She's not me and she'll never be, never be, never be
