

Ziggy Marley - Brothers And Sisters

Tom: A
Intro: A D

A
I am my mama's son
D
You are your father's child
B E
Sometimes we act as if we hate each other

A D
A different faith, different state of mind
B E
That don't mean we all can't be satisfied

A D B C A
We are all brothers and sisters
We are all brothers and sisters

A
Some are black and brown
D
Others white and light
B E
That's the difference I can remember

A D
A different face, a different kind of smile
B
That's what we see
E
But this we must realize

A D B C A
We are all brothers and sisters
We are all brothers and sisters

A D
Earth is my mother, there is no other
B E
So for you, so for all of I

A
Don't look me with a scorn
E
In time mankind was born
B E
So for you, so for all of I
A E
Love must live, hate must die
B E
Don't draw no line, don't you be so blind

A D B C A
We are all brothers and sisters
We are all brothers and sisters

B C A
I am no stranger in your town
B C A
Rasta seed is all around
B C A
So when you are looking at me
Don't think I am your enemy

A
I am your father's son
D
You are your mama's child
B E
Sometimes we act as if we hate each other

A D
A different faith, a different state of mind
B E
That don't mean we all can't be satisfied

A D
Brothers and sisters we are all
Brothers and sisters all and all
